7. [REDACTED] Met with Miss Dorothy Fosdick, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations staff, and delivered to her a blind memorandum of 15 October titled "Possible Implications for International Law of the Article Entitled 'Sovereignty and International Duties of Socialist Countries' by S. Kovalev, Pravda, 25 September 1968" and an undated paper titled "Soviet Attitudes Toward International Law." A copy of the Pravda article "Sovereignty and International Duties of Socialist Countries" and a New York Times comment thereon of 20 September was also provided. Miss Fosdick indicated that Senator Jackson would present his paper or talk before the Military Committee rather than in the plenary session of the North Atlantic Assembly meeting. The subject matter will be held close to the vest prior to the meeting to avoid possible premature leaks to the press.

Miss Fosdick also noted in passing that Senator Cooper as rapporteur for the North Atlantic Assembly will be preparing the Military Committee report in advance of the meeting after checking with the members of the Committee.
